

Helpful web links for the Fieldwork Educator

AOTA offers a Fieldwork Educators Certificate Workshop. This certification workshop is a voluntary credentialing process.

AOTA has a web page dedicated to resources for Fieldwork Educators. It can be accessed by members and non-members.

Medicare guidelines for the use of co-treatment in therapy can be found by clicking here.

The Preceptor Education Program was developed in Canada to assist health professionals prepare for the clinical student/educator relationship. It has 9 modules that can be completed individually at no cost. A certificate of completion is offered at the end of each module. Check your state practice act, as you may be able to use these modules to fulfil a portion of your CEU requirements.

The New England Occupational Therapy Education Council has developed many resources for Fieldwork Educators.

The University of Manitoba Occupational Therapy Program has a blog dedicated to supervising a student and serving as a Fieldwork Educator. Click to access Fieldwork Educator Tips blog.

OT Seeker: OT Seeker is a database that contains abstracts of systematic reviews, randomized controlled trials and other resources relevant to occupational therapy interventions. Most trials have been critically appraised for their validity and interpretability.